NEW BUSINESS

Discussion Regarding Limitation of Distance Learning Courses

The Subcommittee discussed placing a limit on the amount of distance learning courses for licensees. The Committee discussed the regulations pertaining to several other professional licensure boards, as well as the Delaware Bar. Many boards, as well as the Bar, place a limit for online continuing education. Mr. Doyle moved, seconded by Mr. Rushe, to recommend to the Education Committee that the regulations be changed to limited online continuing education to four modules (12) hours, and the remaining three modules would need to be taken in a classroom setting. Motion unanimously carried.
